

Burns Night haggis at Lulworth House Residential Care Home

This year for Burns Night at Lulworth House Residential Care Home, we served some traditional cooked haggis for our residents to try with dinner. We also tried some haggis flavoured posh crisps!

The reactions were mixed, as it seemed to be a fairly acquired taste! Some of our residents were more keen than others but everyone enjoyed the experience of trying something different.