

Christmas crafting at Lulworth House Residential Care Home

Our ladies at Lulworth House Residential Care Home were busy making Christmas decorations together last week.

They made paper chains and colourful pom-pom trees, which looks very festive displayed around our Home.

Some of our residents also enjoyed some Christmas colouring whilst listening to festive music – the perfect relaxing and festive combination!

