

Dementia dolls at Lulworth House Residential Care Home

Our lady residents really enjoy our weekly knit and natter group at Lulworth House Residential Care Home and last week we hosted the group with our dementia dolls in the room.

It was great to see everyone engaging with the dolls and singing lullabies. Our ladies even discussed knitting new hats and clothes for them, which will be fantastic to see!

Such a relaxing session of wonderful reminiscence.