

Easter flower arranging at Lulworth House Residential Care Home

During the Easter weekend, we created some beautiful spring flower displays at Lulworth House Residential Care Home.

We took our time thinking about our designs and how we wanted to arrange them, adding in some Easter decorations including some little wooden bunnies and Easter eggs.

A couple of our residents were florists in their working lives and really enjoyed this activity and getting creative.

