

Lulworth House Residential Care Home residents take a trip to Whistable

A group of residents from Lulworth House Residential Care Home in Maidstone made a day trip to Whistable on 10 August – the fresh air and fish and chips by sea was a perfect way to spend a Friday. Despite the windy weather, our ladies and gents had a great time taking in the seaside scenery with regular tea and coffee tops at local beach cafés.

