

Lulworth House Residential Care Home residents enjoy delicious milkshakes

Keeping our residents well hydrated is always important to us at Lulworth House Residential Care Home and 'variety is the spice of life' as they say, so we like to try different refreshments.

Last week our ladies loved making and drinking milkshakes together – they all agreed they were extra tasty!