

Music with Archie at Lulworth House Residential Care Home

We have a fabulous volunteer called Archie who comes in to see us at Lulworth House Residential Care Home to play music and encourages our residents to sing along.

We whipped out our musical instruments this week and really got stuck into Elvis, old pub classics and of course the Beatles.

Sometimes a good singalong is all you need! Thanks for a great time Archie!