

Spa day at Lulworth House Residential Care Home

At Lulworth House Residential Care Home we know how basic touch can play an essential part of a resident's well-being, especially during these difficult COVID times.

So sensory sessions are at the heart of our Activities calendar and this week residents could join in with a bubbling foot spa, manicure and hand massage session.

Our foot spa session went down very well with our gentlemen in particular – so relaxing!